- (2) Adopt alternatives to the budget ordinance which it deems appropriate; however, in no event shall authorized expenditures exceed estimated revenues and resources.

(g) Timetable for adoption of budget ordinance.

(1) In order to provide for an orderly procedure for the adoption of the annual budget ordinance, the mayor, the president of the city council and the chairperson of the city council finance committee shall agree upon a timetable for the formulation of the mayor's proposed budget ordinance and for the city council's hearings, deliberations and adoption of the ordinance. The timetable for the budget shall be established prior to June 1 of each year.

(2) The budget timetable shall include adequate time for the mayor and the city council to consider the budget requests of the departments.

(3) The mayor shall transmit to the city council a proposed budget ordinance setting forth the mayor's financial program for the ensuing fiscal year by September 1 of each year.

(4) The policy of the city shall be that, by September 30 of each year, the city council shall adopt a budget ordinance making appropriations for the ensuing fiscal year.

(h) Six-month budget review. By May 1 of each year, the mayor and director of finance shall make a report to the city council of the revenues and expenditures of the city and its departments for the first six months of the fiscal year. After the review, the city council shall make budget adjustments that the city council deems advisable.

(i) Contingency reserves.

(1) The policy of the city shall be to maintain a portion of the fund balance of the general fund as a reserve for contingencies and unexpected financial events, which shall be referred to as a "reserve for contingencies."

(2) The city's goal in the adopted budget is establish a reserve for contingencies equal to at least 11.5 percent of the general fund's estimated revenues, without regard to revenue from grants. The mayor may recommend any amount in excess of this goal as the reserve in the budget proposal, or a reserve for any other fund of the city, which is subject to approval by the city council in the adopted budget.

(3) The reserve amount shall be included in the mayor's budget proposal to the city council, and the adopted budget.

(4) If the city must utilize the general fund reserve for contingencies to balance appropriations within estimated revenues of any fiscal year, subsequent adopted budgets must include a plan to restore the reserve amount to the stated goal until such is fully restored.

(j) General administration of programs and appropriations.

(1) The finance department shall maintain financial records and account for the financial activities in compliance with best established practices and generally accepted accounting principles. The finance department will maintain a fund accounting system that includes the number and types of funds necessary to satisfy the legal requirements and operational needs of the city.

(2) The finance department shall establish and maintain a chart of accounts in compliance with best established practices and accounting requirements. The chart of accounts shall include revenue, expenditure and other required accounts that shall provide city officials and the public meaningful financial information about City financial activities and demonstrate compliance with city budget ordinances and legal requirements.

(3) The revenue and appropriation budgets of the city's funds shall be categorized as follows: revenue, personnel, operating, departmental capital, city agency transfers, outside agency appropriations, debt service, debt-related items, transfers with city funds, and capital projects spending.

(4) The city council shall adopt the budgets in the budget ordinance as follows, which represents the level of city council budgetary control:

a. For the expenditure accounts of departments, by personnel, operating and departmental capital.

b. For the funds accounting for the budgets of the city's long-range capital improvement plans, by budget category, except that accounts categorized as "capital project spending" shall be adopted at the subcategory level as presented in the long-range capital improvement plans.

c. For appropriations categorized as "city agency transfers" or "outside agency appropriations," by individual account.

d. For all other revenue and appropriation accounts, by budget category.

(5) The director of finance is authorized to adjust the estimated revenues or appropriations among the accounts within a budget category or subcategory to the extent the increases and decreases offset. An increase or decrease in the total amount of any budget category or subcategory must be authorized by the city council in advance. An increase or decrease to an appropriation categorized as "city agency transfers" or "outside agency appropriations" must be authorized by the city council in advance. In the event of an emergency or unusual situation, the director of finance is authorized to adjust an appropriation that must ordinarily be authorized by the city council pursuant to this paragraph, upon notification and approval of the city council president and city council finance committee chairperson.

(6) The mayor, mayor's designee or the city council is authorized to approve travel expenses of any officer or employee of the city who travels outside the city limits, which are incurred for the purpose of improving or furthering the city's goals or its business. Such approval by the mayor or mayor's designee shall be in writing stating the purpose and the object of such travel. Such approval by the city council shall be by resolution setting forth the purpose and the object of such travel. All travel and related expenses shall be administered in compliance with city personnel policies and procedures.
